THE ANIMAL DEBATE

DVD Resource

FOXHUNTING INTENSIVE FARMING MEDICAL EXPERIMENTS

The Animal Debate is a student enquiry. It gives equal time to both sides of the arguments. All three debates are specially segmented into units to allow stop-start as each position is argued. The linked activity sheets include transcribed passages for critical examination.

DEBATE 1 FOXHUNTING: The case for foxhunting is made by the Master of the Warwickshire Hunt. Students follow the hunt and talk to young and old participants as well as a farmer and a representative of the British Field Sports Society. The case against foxhunting is made by the manager of a wildlife sanctuary. Students visit the sanctuary and hear the case for the protection of the fox. They also talk to a farmer opposed to hunting and a representative of The League Against Cruel Sports.

DEBATE 2 INTENSIVE FARMING: The case for intensive farming is made by a broiler farmer, a dairy farmer, a livestock transporter and a representative of the National Farmers' Union.

DVD/VHS content: 3 x 45 minute debates in 23 units

Activity sheets: 85 printable pages on DVD, 85 printed pages with VHS

Suitability: Key Stage 4/5

Price: DVD £29.99 ex Vat, VHS £38.00 ex Vat (VHS available while stocks last)

The case against intensive farming is made by protesters against veal exports at Shoreham harbour, the leader of the council, an organic farmer and a representative of Compassion in World Farming.

DEBATE 3 MEDICAL EXPERIMENTS:

The case for the use of animals in medical research is made by Professor Michael Stock when the students visit the animal house of a medical research laboratory. Also supporting the arguments is pharmacologist Professor Colin Blakemore.

The case against the use of animals in medical research is made by Professor Chris Atterwell, when the students visit a cell culture laboratory. Also supporting the argument are Dr Gill Langley, scientific advisor for an anti-vivisection research trust, Ken Livingstone MP and a representative from the animal welfare group Animal Aid.

Critical Thinking for students

Team Video have produced this DVD Resource specially for the Critical Thinking syllabus. It contains six short and provocative, self-contained debates, dealing with controversial issues:

- Death penalty
- Is it OK to hit children?
- Trade unions at work
- Nuclear power
- An eye for an eye
- Organic food

Six critical presentations on controversial subjects on DVD

DVD/VHS content: 6 x 10 minute units

Suitability: Key Stage 5

Price: DVD £25.00 ex Vat, VHS £30.00 ex Vat (VHS available while stocks last)

Divergent views, ideas and opinions are presented and attractively argued for the students to analyse and evaluate. Students can see arguments being developed. They can see how they are constructed and how effective they are and they can identify bias and different persuasive devices.

The material is drawn from TV documentaries and Team Video's own productions and was chosen to illustrate a range of reasoning
